Parish Notices

Clocks go back!

Please remember that the clocks go back one hour today, 27th October.

Readers needed!

We need some new volunteers please to read the readings at the Sunday Mass – please speak to Frances Poulastides if you think you may be able to offer help with this part of our worship. If you are new to reading in public practice sessions without a congregation can be arranged, so please don't be shy!

All Souls' Day – 2nd November

All Souls' Day falls this Saturday, 2nd November. There will be Requiem Masses that day at 9am, 10am and 12.30pm. The names of everyone on our Parish anniversary list will be read through in the course of the three Masses, please write any additional names to be remembered on the lists available at the back of church.

Jean Thorpe RIP – burial of ashes

Jean Thorpe was a member of the congregation at St Matthias, and later a resident at Henry Nihill House, who died in 2013. Her ashes will be interred in our garden of remembrance on Friday 8th November, following a said Requiem Mass at 12 Noon in Church.

First Reading (Jeremiah 31.7-9)

A reading from the book of the Prophet Jeremiah.

Thus says the Lord:

Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob,
and raise shouts for the chief of the nations;
proclaim, give praise, and say,
'Save, O Lord, your people,
the remnant of Israel.'

See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north,
and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth,
among them the blind and the lame,
those with child and those in labour, together;
a great company, they shall return here.

With weeping they shall come,
and with consolations I will lead them back,
I will let them walk by brooks of water,
in a straight path in which they shall not stumble;
for I have become a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my firstborn.

This is the Word of the Lord

Psalms 126*Response:

The Lord has done great things for us
and we are glad.

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,
then were we like those who dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
and our tongue with shouts of joy. R

Then they said among the nations,
'The Lord has done great things for them.'
The Lord has done great things for us,
and we are glad indeed. R

Restore our fortunes, O Lord, like the watercourses of the Negev.
Those who sowed with tears will reap with songs of joy.
Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed,
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves. R

Second Reading (Hebrews 7.23-28)

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues for ever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect for ever.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

I am the light of the world, says the Lord,
anyone who follows me will have the light of life.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel (Mark 10.46-52)

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Mark

Glory to you, O Lord

As Jesus and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, 'Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!' Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, 'Son of David, have mercy on me!'

Jesus stood still and said, 'Call him here.' And they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take heart; get up, he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man said to him, 'My teacher, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has made you well.' Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ
