Parish Notices

Remembrance Sunday

Next Sunday, 10th November, is Remembrance Sunday. We will gather for the traditional Act of Remembrance at 10.55am, so that the two minutes' silence will fall at 11am, followed by the Parish Mass.

Jean Thorpe RIP - burial of ashes

Jean Thorpe was a member of the congregation at St Matthias, and later a resident at Henry Nihill House, who died in 2013. Her ashes will be interred in our garden of remembrance on Friday 8th November, following a said Requiem Mass at 12 Noon in Church. (N.B. There will be no 9am Mass that day.)

Readers needed!

We need some new volunteers please to read the readings at the Sunday Mass – please speak to Frances Poulastides if you think you may be able to offer help with this part of our worship. If you are new to reading in public practice sessions without a congregation can be arranged, so please don't be shy!

All Saints' Sunday

Sunday 3rd November 2024

Mass Times and Readings for Morning and Evening Prayer

Readings and psalms for Morning and Evening Prayer are given for use with Common Worship Daily Prayer or the Book of Common Prayer. MP = Morning Prayer; EP = Evening Prayer. For a shorter version of the Office, use one psalm and one reading. For the same services online see tinyurl.com/jusdp. (* = a long Psalm, part of which may be omitted. Where there is a choice of two sets of Psalms, the first is for the season, the second follows the ordinary cycle.)

First Reading (Isaiah 25.6-9)

A reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear.

And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death for ever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Psalm 24.1–6

Response:

The souls of the righteous
are in the hand of God
no torment will ever touch them.

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, the world and all who dwell therein. For it is he who founded it upon the seas and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep. R

'Who can ascend the hill of the Lord? and who can stand in his holy place?'

'Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, who have not pledged themselves to falsehood, nor sworn by what is a fraud. R

They shall receive a blessing from the Lord and a just reward from the God of their salvation.' Such is the generation of those who seek him, of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob. R

Second Reading (Revelation 21.1-6a)

A reading from the book of Revelation

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

'See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes.'

Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.'

And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.' Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.'

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are those who share in the first resurrection.

They will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him!

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel (John 11.32-44)

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Glory to you, O Lord

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother Lazarus would not have died.' When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?'

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ
