Parish Notices

Induction of the Vicar

The Institution and Induction of Fr Matthew as the Vicar will take place during a sung Mass on Thursday 30th July at 7pm. The principal celebrant and preacher will be the Archdeacon of Hampstead, as Commissary of the Bishop. The service will be followed by a party (in the Vicarage garden, if fine).

Fire Update

Work after the fire in April is progressing. The kneelers and baptistery banners were returned last week after professional cleaning to remove the effects of smoke.

A company has been instructed to prepare a quotation for replastering and redecorating the west wall, and for repairing the ceiling fascia where it has been damaged. Quotations are being sought from two specialist companies to replace the Incumbents' Board. We have a quotation for the installation of CCTV on the exterior of the church and hall, and have applied for the necessary ecclesiastical permission.

First Reading (Exodus 19.2–8a)

A reading from the book of Exodus.

The Israelites had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain.

Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.'

So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him.

The people all answered as one:

'Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do.'

Thanks be to God

Psalm 100

Response:

We are the people and the sheep of his pasture.

Be joyful in the Lord, all you lands;
serve the Lord with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.
Know this: The Lord himself is God;
he himself has made us and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture. R

Enter his gates with thanksgiving;
go into his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and call upon his name.
For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting;
and his faithfulness endures from age to age. R

Second Reading (Romans 5.1–8)

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God.

And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person – though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice, says
the Lord,

I know them and they follow me.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

The Gospel (Matthew 9.35 – 10.8)

Hear the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.'

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness.

These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise be to you, O Christ
